Description:

This database is an index to individuals enumerated in the 1870 United States Federal Census, the Ninth Census of the United States. Census takers recorded many details including each person's name, age at last birthday, sex, color; birthplace, occupation, and more. No relationships were shown between members of a household. Additionally, the names of those listed on the population schedule are linked to actual images of the 1870 Federal Census.

CANDIDATE FOR BEAT 3 MEMBER

Local Business Man Announces As Candidate For Board of Supervisors.

C. R. Stringfellow, well known business man of Pascagoula has announced as a candidate to represent district 3 on the Jackson county board of supervisors, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries in August.

Mr. Stringfellow has been a resident of Pascagoula for the past eight years and is well known to the voters in the district he desires to represent. He is familiar with county affairs and the needs of the district and his platform which follows is a most interesting one:

"To the Voters of Supervisors District 3:

"In announcing for the office of board member to represent supervisors district 3 of Jackson county I do so on the following platform:

1. "To install a system on the Pascagoula bridge which will register every vehicle passing over the bridge, with sealed register.

2. "To invite every citizen of Jackson County to inspect the records of toll bridge and other county records more often.

3. "I am in favor of a $2.50 bridge book to give some of us poor folks a break. Also would like to see $1.00 punch cards issued good for 8 trips.

4. "In favor of old age pensions.

5. "Having no relatives here, I am in favor of a more equal distribution of relief moneys. Let's share up these jobs and get rid of some of these political parasites.

6. "I am in favor of reducing taxes wherever possible.

7. "I am an independent candidate and not aligned with any political faction.

8. "If elected to this office, I will endorse my first six months warrants over to the Chancery Clerk to defray the expense of a special election in the event the voters decide I am not endeavoring to keep the above promises. A six-months mistake is better than a four-year one.

"C. R. STRINGFELLOW."

and started cooking. After most of those present had eaten what they had cooked, everyone gathered around the camp fire.

The campfire was opened by a simple but impressive ceremony put on by Rev. B. A. Meeks and J. F. Velcich. This included the reading of a list of absent scouts, among whom were George Washington, Daniel Boone and David Crockett, and a list of those present. Following this all stood and reported in unison the Scout Oath.

Then all joined in singing songs. Next each patrol gave a stunt which they had prepared during the week. The Crow Patrol had some trouble with an operation on Rev. Mr. Meeks for something he had eaten. He seemed to have gone on a diet of fish hooks, nails and other assorted odds and ends. Then there were several contests in banana and cracker eating. The rookies were also initiated into several Scout clubs.

After all the games had been played the total number of points for each patrol was found, the Crows having the most. Clyde Surgi made a talk on the progress made at these meetings and J. F. Velcich awarded the prizes to the Crow Patrol.

The campfire was closed with the campfire song and the Scouts' benediction.

DEATH OF MRS. H. G. OLVER

Mrs. Jeanette Olver, wife of H. G. Olver, died Thursday afternoon at four thirty o'clock, after an illness of three months. Her death occurred in the Jackson County Hospital where she had been removed from her home on the beach several days ago when she became in a state of coma from which she never rallied.

The funeral will take place on Friday afternoon at the home of deceased, Gulf Cove Inn, on Beach Boulevard, Rev. E. G. Maxted of the Episcopal church officiating, interment in Greenwood cemetery.

Mrs. Olver was 70 years of age, was born in Chicago, where she was married to Mr. Olver fifty-three years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Olver have lived in Pascagoula 39 years, 35 of which were spent on the beach.

Deceased is survived by two brothers, Jas. J. Varile of San Antonio, Texas, and Harry Varile, of Chicago, and other relatives. Her bereaved husband has the sympathies of hundreds of friends in Pascagoula and elsewhere.

past two years has been athletic director of the High school, this week that he has with much for release by the Board of trustees for the coming year accepted a position in the at McComb, Miss.

Coach Moore's new similar to those he had the exception that in addition to his duties as coach, he will teach physical science in the McComb and will have no literary of any kind to do. He this, aside from the fact that he will get a much larger salary than he is now receiving.

During Coach Moore's absence here, he has won the confidence of the people attending Pascagoula High but the esteem of every member of the community and the resignation will be received with much regret by many citizens. It is stated unofficially that Coach Moore will be succeeded by Assistant Coach Wells, who has every qualification for filling the place and doubt carry Pascagoula High team on to victory as has in the past two years.

The elevation of Coach Wells to the position of head coach creates a vacancy in that department of the school which is yet to be filled.

No one is authorized to say that Coach Wells will succeed Coach Moore, but that seems a general impression and a happy solution of the problem arising by the resignation of Coach Moore.

"Judge" Olver Dies

Funeral services for Miras C. Ol-ver, 51 years-old former Justice of Peace of District 2, who died at the Jackson County Hospital last Wednesday following an illness of six weeks, was held Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Palm Funeral Parlor. Services were conducted by Rev. Fredrick S.
Reigh of St. John's Episcopal Church, and interment in the Greenwood Cemetery.

"Judge" Olver as he was known familiarily throughout Pascagoula
and this section of Jackson County, was born December 24, 1889, at Mantass, Wis. He came to Pascagoula during the early part of his life and operated a large sawmill for several years. He returned to Wisconsin where he remained for several years and then returned to Pascagoula, residing here since. He was elected justice of the peace for District 2 of Jackson County and served in that office from 1926 until 1940. During this time he became known as the "Marrying Justice of the Peace," because of the large number of wedding ceremonies he performed.

Pall-bearers for his funeral were
W. F. Stephens, Lee G. Beckham,
S. E. Freidrich, D. J. Marled, O. K.
Wiesenberg and T. G. Clark.

DEATH OF J. M. CLARK

James Madison Clark, aged 75
years, a native of Orange Grove,
and life long resident of Jackson county, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Raymond Klags, in Kreole, on December 20, after an illness with pneumonia of eleven days.

The funeral was held from the Orange Grove Methodist Church at two o'clock in the afternoon of December 21, Rev. J. P. Payne conducting the service, assisted by Rev.
Jewel Colman and Rev. Monte Davis. Interment was in the Orange Grove Cemetery, the following being the pall bearers: Lee Gaudry of Mobile, Johnny Clark of Orange

Grove, and Frank Dickson and Osbert Dickson of Kreole.

Deceased was married twice, his first wife being Miss Anna De-ble of St. Elmo, Alabama; the second, Miss Isabelle McCormick of Grand Bay, neither of whom are living. He is survived by two daughters and two sons: Mrs. J. H.
King, Mrs. H. Jones, C. A. Clark, and J. E. Clark, all of Kreole; also 21 grandchildren, and a great grandchild. Also surviving are three sisters: Mrs. C. M. Dickson, Kreole, Mrs. Tom Roberts, Orange
Grove, and Mrs. Willie Mansfield, Pascagoula.

Mr. Clark had many friends in Jackson County, and commanded the respect of all who knew him, being a loyal citizen, a loving husband and father, and a devout member of the Kreole Methodist Church, of which he was a trustee.

WYATT-CARTER

Of interest to many friends and relatives was the marriage of Miss Mary Evelyn Carter, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Carter of Pascagoula, to Mr. J. V. Wyatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Wyatt of Eccatawa, on December 20, 1941, at 1 p. m.

The ring ceremony was performed
at the Methodist parsonage in Eccatawa, Rev. Mr. Murry officiating.

Miss Bunny Carter, sister of the bride, and Mr. Jimmy Fields were the only attendants.

The bride was lovely in a two-piece suit of blue wool. She wore an off-face hat of cherry tan and other accessories were of matching colors.

Mrs. Wyatt attended Parkeston Junior College and the University of Alabama and for the past few years has been teaching in the public schools of this county, at present being a member of the Wade school faculty. Mr. Wyatt is a graduate of Moss Point High School and is now employed by the Ingalls Shipbuilding Corporation.

here was highly complimented by the Southern manager for the fine condition and large patronage of the local office.

The firm of Blackwell & Chase have settled their business liabilities and will re-engage in their same lines of merchandising and the livery business. The young men comprising the firm are striving for success.

Messrs. H. G. Olver & Co. are doing a lively sawmill business on the Pascagoula river. Besides the manufacture of yellow pine lumber they are turning hardwood material into building and ornamental designs.

The dredging under the last appropriation by the government for our harbor has been completed. The work will no doubt be continued under an additional appropriation by Congress through the Rivers and Harbors committee.

Mrs. M. A. Reeder and her niece, Miss Mary B. Edmonds returned on Tuesday from Cleburne, Texas, whither she had gone several weeks ago because of the illness and subsequent death of her sister, Mrs. M. E. Edmonds. Both are staying with the editor's family.

Accusing one of Scranton's beau's of being the "missing link" he was flattered upon showing the valentine to a lady friend that she had been for sometime in search of the important solution, and that by mutual agreement they could make a great future out of proving its existence.

Rev. C. J. Broders, of St. Louis, former pastor of the Lutheran church here, who was on a visit to his friends in New Orleans and this city preached an excellent sermon Sunday to a large congregation of appreciative and sympathetic hearers. Mr. Broders returned to his home Thursday followed by the best wishes of the whole community.

Slowly, but surely the Belgian hare is becoming a favorite down here. Little rabbit "cotton tail" of the piney woods is no longer a surprise on a cold frosty morning jumping out of the wood pile. His species is becoming a rare one, even about graveyards, where the superstitious, for luck go in search of his left hind foot to wear in a right side vest pocket as a charm. The Belgian animal is domesticated and improved in size by careful raising.

Miss Lella Ridley Williams, of La Grange, Ga., who has been the guest of Laguna and J. H. Shepherd, of the Arthur McArdle have been making their headquarters here during the loading of their vessels.

Mr. Philip Whittman, of the Alabama Iron Works, Mobile passed Sunday here, the guest of Mrs. J. C. Laurendin and family.

Capt. D. R. Hagerthy and wife, of the schooner Sedgwick are visitors ashore. The vessel is receiving a cargo of lumber at "Middle Fleet" anchorage. Capt. Hagerthy reported the death at sea of Seaman John Bood en route from New York to Havana.

Mr. H. Amsdoff, of Louisville, Ky representing the Summit City Soap Works, of Fort Wayne, Ind. is visiting our coast cities and towns. He expressed himself as being very much impressed with this delightful seashore region.

Mr. E. H. Bowser, the new superintendent of the West Pascagoula Creosote Works is a gentleman of fine personality and has made many friends here.

North Pascagoula street is being shelved. It certainly needed it badly.

Keep your horses and cows off the streets and the L. & N. trains will not harm them.

Newspaper lame ducks are hard to catch sometimes.

It is hard to get some men to work for a dead horse, so to speak.

On Monday, a lovely girl baby, weighing thirteen pounds was born to Mr. and Mrs. Norman F. Miller.

Mrs. Pembroke R. Labusan, of Mobile spent two days this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Alley.

Capt. A. Anderson, of New York was a recent guest of Mr. C. H. Alley and family.

The Hattiesburg Progress is opposed to the cows being on the streets of this city. It is true that they eat all the paper thrown out. The City of Scranton has an ordinance on that subject but it is not enforced.

Mr. Sam E. North, of Grand Bay, was in our city Monday.
